

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

It's extremely disappointing that Sinclair would do this only for political purposes. I hope you take some kind of action. Sinclair cannot and must not be allowed to slander a candidate only for political purposes. It's time the FCC takes a stand against powerful entities and protect the people it supposedly serves.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
